

STACEY L. SCHAMBER

Principal Consultant

Volunteer Project Manager and Trainer,
Meta-Culture

Skills Summary

- Peacebuilder/Social Worker with ten years of experience in trauma and international work
- Trainer, Mediator, and Dialogue Facilitator
- Sensitivity to cultural differences and gender
- Passion for peaceful resolution of conflicts and strengthening civil society
- Highly motivated, dedicated worker, and fast learner

INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE

- Lebanon, 2012, 2013 developed and delivered communication and negotiation skills training to young women in the Lebanese Council of Women and gender training in consultation with the Lebanese Ministry of Social Affairs, Family Division.
- Ethiopia, August 2010-February 2012 co-developed and taught Clinical and Family Assessment course and supervised home and community visits for Masters students in the Department of Psychiatry at Jimma University.
- Uganda, July 2008 accompanied Simmons School of Social Work to Uganda to learn about the culture, visit social service agencies, and converse with civic leaders.
- Ecuador and the Dominican Republic, 2006, 2007 volunteer projects with youth and children

PROFESSIONAL WORK EXPERIENCE

- Nov. 2015-Present : Meta-Culture, Bangalore, India
Volunteer Project Manager and Trainer
- Feb. 2014-July 2015 : Mercy Corps, Zahle, Lebanon
Protection Project Manager
- June 2013-Apr. 2014 : Heartland Alliance International, Beirut, Lebanon
Project Coordinator, Independent Contractor
- Jan 2013-present : Mediators Beyond Borders, Pittsburgh, PA
Volunteer Member
- Sept. 2005-June 2012 : Brigham & Women's Hospital, Boston, MA
Social Worker
- Feb. 2006-June 2012 : Codman Square Health Center, Boston, MA.
Behavioral Health Clinician
- June 2011-2013 : Soliya, New York, NY
- February 2012 : Wellesley College, Wellesley, MA