

Daniel Erdmann

Principal Consultant

Director General and Founder of the World Mediation Organization

Daniel Erdmann worked for several years as a member of the managing board for humanitarian organizations. Nowadays he is the Director General and Founder of the World Mediation Organization (UN Global Compact Partner) based in Berlin – Germany, Tutor at the United Nations System Staff College, Professor and Director of the School of Mediation at Euclid, Participant in a European Commission Peace Project, and a former COTIPSO Training Partner and Thesis Advisor at the Peace Operations Training Institute. He is responsible for the training concept, supervision and management of civil peace projects throughout the globe. All professional skills are provided in English, Spanish and German language.